DATE: Thursday, March 2nd, 2017
TIME: 7:30AM – 4:30PM
PLACE: Duke University School of Nursing, Room 1011
WHO: ANY interested DUHS RN (direct care, manager, director, etc.)
WHAT: Nurses with an idea for an evidence-based practice project can apply to this one-day workshop. You will be paired with a coach that will help you get a jump start on your project through idea formation and searching for supporting literature.
Presentations will include:
• Forming a PICOT question
• EBP models
• How to complete a literature search
WHY: To provide support and assist in growing nurses’ skills with EBP so their project is a SLAM DUNK!

Registration will begin on ____________________
SPACE IS LIMITED, SO APPLY EARLY
